chosen to look at and
write about politics, Joan Vincent contends that the

anthropological study of politics is itself a historical process.

Intended not only as a representation but also as a reinterpretation,
her study arises from questioning accepted
views and unexamined assumptions. This wide-ranging, cross-
disciplinary work is a critical review of ...

Anthropology's Holistic Understanding: Why
Does Politics Matter?

Anthropology
challenges the idea of "lack" or "absence" in non-state societies.
Anthropology also challenges the idea that in modern societies, kinship and gender become less relevant to politics (Lavenda and Schultz, 359).

Why Does Politics Matter? Anthropology on Politics & Power

Anthropologists identify these as political systems or political organizations. In studying political systems, anthropologists have learned about the myriad ways that people acquire power , or the ability to get others to do what one wants, and authority ,
