Many chefs are familiar with the tears and smell that come with cutting and cooking onions, but a new variety of the vegetable promises to do away with the tears and bad breath.

New onion variety promises no tears, no bad breath

No Promises is a bit of a typical New Adult romance fiction that made me feel fuzzy and contented. I just feel it had so much more potential based on its synopsis. The story started out as if it were a young adult novel - female protagonist has a seemingly unrequited crush on her perfect cousin's ex-boyfriend who seems to not have given up on that said cousin.

No Promises by N. Raines

A bad boy knows what he wants from a partner and is honest about it (see step six under Part One.) There's no shame in pursuing purely sexual
