The 1980s saw the beginning of modern cheerleading, adding difficult stunt sequences and gymnastics into routines. All-star teams, or those not affiliated with a school, popped up, and eventually led to the creation of the United States All-Star Federation (USASF). ESPN first broadcast the National High School Cheerleading Competition nationwide in 1983.

In professional sports, sponsorship is a highly established practice. We have all seen its presence in the brand names on the player's uniforms, the ever-changing banners in the background, not to mention the advertising spots during, before and after the game. Hell, often enough entire stadiums are named after corporate sponsors! Yet, you don't need [...]
