Usborne books always tick all the boxes. This one is full of fun and educational (without the children realising) dot to dots. The number line at the bottom of the page to help, allowing independent play/learning and information on each page make for great sibling interaction too. My 6yr old boy loves this book.

This book kept my kids -- 3 1/2 and 5 years old -- entertained for hours. This book includes all the numbers at the bottom of each page, so it is easy to use for kids still learning how to count. There are many dot-to-dot pictures on each page, so there are plenty of pictures to complete. I highly recommend it.
